

Record in the Commens Bibliography. Retrieved from http://www.commens.org/bibliography/collection\_article/pape-helmut-1999-why-we-mean-always-more-and-sometimes-less-we-say, 20.05.2026.

---

Type: Article in Edited Collection
Author: Pape, Helmut
Title: Why We Mean (always) More and (sometimes) Less than We Say: Context-Dependence and Vagueness in Peirce's Semiotics
Year: 1999
Editor: Shapiro, Michael
Volume Title: The Peirce Seminar Papers: Essays in Semiotic Analysis. Volume Four
Place: New York
Publisher: Berghahn Books
Pages: 589-621
Language: English
Keywords: Vagueness, Logic of Vagueness, Indeterminacy, Semantics