Peirce, Kant, and Apel on Transcendental Semiotics: The Unity of Apperception and the Deduction of the Categories of Signs

Abstract: Discusses the transcendental semiotics and the unity of apperception and the deduction of the categories of sign. Definition of transcendental logic; interrelation of judgment with the condition of consistency; stages of the account of apperception.