Discusses philosopher Charles Sanders Peirce's epistemology of learning and the function of abduction as the logic of discovery. Cognitive process of learning and discovery; Way to study the phenomenon of discovery; Details why formal deductive computation cannot generate new concepts and theories.