

Record in the Commens Bibliography. Retrieved from <http://www.commens.org/bibliography/manuscript/peirce-charles-s-1885-notes-categories-r-ms-r-895-ms-w-545>, 21.03.2026.

---

Type: Manuscript

Author: Peirce, Charles Sanders

Title: Notes on the Categories [R]

Manuscript MS [R] 895; MS [W] 545

Id:

Year: 1885

Abstract / From the Robin Catalogue:

Description: A. MS., G-c.1880-2, 41 pp.

Five pages of the manuscript were published as 1.353. Omitted: application of the categories in formal logic. Logical analysis of “Cogito, ergo sum.” Kantian and Peircean categories compared. The Kantian categories of totality, plurality, and unity are nearly CSP’s. Criticism of Kant’s views on the functions of judgments.

Language: English