Record in the Commens Bibliography. Retrieved from

 $http://www.commens.org/bibliography/manuscript/peirce-charles-s-1904-logic-viewed-semeiotic-introduction-no-2-phaneroscopy, \\05.01.2026.$

Type: Manuscript

Author: Peirce, Charles Sanders

Title: Logic Viewed as Semeiotic. Introduction No 2. Phaneroscopy

Manuscript MS [R] 337

ld:

Year: 1904

Abstract / Robin Catalogue:

Description: A. MS., notebook, n.p., n.d.

Distinction between "manifest" and "evident." CSP claims the privilege of creating a new word, "phaneron," which is defined as "whatever is through-out its entirety open to assured observation."

Keywords: Phaneron, Idea

Language: English