
Type: Manuscript
Author: Peirce, Charles Sanders
Title: The Fourth Curiosity
Manuscript Id: MS [R] 200
Year: 1907
Abstract / Description: A. MS., G-1908-1e, pp. 1-186, plus 161 pp. (running brokenly to p. 186). Omitted from publication in the Collected Papers: further discussion of the relationships of the Aristotelian pattern; definition of “pure mathematics”; numbers as entia rationis; first valid argument for pragmatism involves the denial of the Absolute. Kind, class, and collection. Signs and predication.

CP, Cross-reference index:
(d) Reference to “The Third Curiosity” at [CP] 4.647n*.
(e) “Some Amazing Mazes, Fourth Curiosity,” (c.1909). The following are from it: [CP] 6.318-348, on various topics in metaphysics; 4.647-681, on classes and numbers, with 4.647 following shortly after 6.348.”

Language: English