

Record in the Commens Bibliography. Retrieved from <http://www.commens.org/bibliography/manuscript/peirce-charles-s-1910-essays-ms-r-654>, 26.01.2026.

Type: Manuscript

Author: Peirce, Charles Sanders

Title: Essays

Manuscript MS [R] 654

Id:

Year: 1910

Abstract / Robin Catalogue:

Description: A. MS., n.p., August 17-19, 1910, pp. 1-7, 2-3.

Note: This manuscript was meant to serve as a "Preface," with MS. 632 serving as the "Introduction." Comments on Arnauld's L'art de penser and on the Port Royal Logic. All reasoning consists in interpreting signs; all thought is in signs. System of existential graphs: the simplest system capable of expressing exactly every possible assertion. Definition of "sign."

Language: English