Term: Complete Argument

Quote: ...a leading principle, which contains no fact not implied or observable in the premisses, is termed a logical principle, and the argument it governs is termed a complete, in contradistinction to an incomplete, argument, or enthymeme.

References: W 4:167; CP 3.166

Date of Quote: 1880

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-algebra-logic-8