Term: Concept
Quote: A concept is a symbol present to the imagination, – that is, more correctly speaking, of which a particular instance might be present to the imagination.
References: EP 2:387; LI 275
Date of Quote: 1906
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-basis-pragmaticism-15