Term: Informed Depth
Quote: The logical compound of all the predicates which can be universally and affirmatively predicated of a term, over and above those implied in its meaning, constitute, when regarded as a quantity, the informed depth of that term, in the state of knowledge referred to.
References: MS [R] 1147
Date of Quote: 1901-1902 [c.]