Term: Modality
Quote: The qualification of a predication on the one hand, or of a being on the other, in respect to possibility and necessity. Although assertoriness, with its metaphysical correspondent, actuality, is the absence of modality, yet it has to be considered from the point of view of modality.
References: MS [R] 1147
Date of Quote: 1901-1902 [c.]
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-definitions-baldwins-dictionary-r-21