Term: First-Intentional Relation

Quote: A first-intentional relation is one the concept of which may be formed by direct generalization and abstraction from observations of its relates.

References: MS [R] 1147

Date of Quote: 1901-1902 [c.]

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-definitions-baldwins-dictionary-r-26