Second-Intentional Relation

A second-intentional relation is one of which the concept is derived from the comparison of logical forms. Such are especially [...] identity, otherness, coexistence, incompossibility.