Term: Imputed Relation
Quote: An imputed relation is a relation which is a fact, if it subsists, but [which] owes its being in part to an action, or virtual action, of the intelligence. Such, for example, is the relation of giving...
References: MS [R] 1147
Date of Quote: 1901-1902 [c.]
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-definitions-baldwins-dictionary-r-28