Term: Belief
Quote: ...believing, real genuine belief, consists in a habit with which one is contented and which one usually recognizes (though not always)[,], this habit consisting in the general fact that under certain circumstances one would act in a definite way, and would be content to do so.
References: NEM 3:191; MS [R] 764
Date of Quote: 1911
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-letter-j-h-kehler-7