
Term: Final Interpretant

Quote: My Final Interpretant is [...] the effect the Sign would produce upon any mind upon which the circumstances should permit it to work out its full effect. [...] the Final Interpretant is the one Interpretative result to which every Interpreter is destined to come if the Sign is sufficiently considered. [...] The Final Interpretant is that toward which the actual tends.

References: SS 110-1

Date of Quote: 1909

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-letters-lady-welby-33