Term: Famisign

Quote: ...Signs, in respect to their Modes of possible Presentation, are divisible [...] into

C. Famisigns, familiar signs, which must be General, as General signs must be familiar or composed of Familiar signs. [I speak of signs which are “general,” not in the sense of signifying Generals, but as being themselves general; just as Charlemagne is general, in that it occurs many times with one and the same denotation.]
