Immediate Object

I am now prepared to give my division of signs, as soon as I have pointed out that a sign has two objects, its object as it is represented and its object in itself. [—]

In respect to its immediate object a sign may either be a sign of a quality, of an existent, or of a law.

SS 32-33

1904-10-12

http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry-quote-letters-lady-welby-61