Term: Syllogism

Quote: Dialogism. A form of reasoning in which from a single premiss a disjunctive, or alternative, proposition is concluded introducing an additional term; opposed to a syllogism, in which from a copulative proposition a proposition is inferred from which a term is eliminated.

References: DPP 2:26; CP 3.623

Date of Quote: 1902

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-logic-exact-4