Term: Rhema
Quote: Each rhema is equivalent to a blank form such that of all its blanks are filled with proper names, it becomes a proposition, or symbol capable of assertion.
References: MS [R] 491:3-4
Date of Quote: 1903 [c.]