Term: Likeness

Quote: A likeness represents its object by agreeing with it in some particular. [—] Scientifically speaking, a likeness is a representation grounded in some internal character - that is whose reference to a ground is prescindible.

References: W 1:475

Date of Quote: 1866