Term: Idioscopy

Quote: The third department [of heuritic science], called idioscopy, embraces all those kinds of investigation which are occupied in bringing to light phenomena previously unknown and which having discovered these phenomena use the same observational methods to push the study of them further.

References: MS [R] 1338:7

Date of Quote: 1905-06 [c.]

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-monist-r-0