Term: Dyadic Relation
Quote: A dyadic relation is a predicate of an ordered pair of subjects, of which one, the grammatical subject, is called the relate, and the other, the grammatical object[,] is called the correlate.
References: MS [R] 26:8
Date of Quote: 1897 [c.]
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-multitude-1