Term: Index

Quote: [Indices are] signs which represent their objects by virtue of being connected with them in fact, although this fact be but the actual occurrence of a thought. [—] The denotation of an index is essentially singular.

Source: Peirce, C. S. (1908 [c.]). A Neglected Argument for the Reality of God (G). MS [R] 842.

References: MS [R] 842:32

Date of Quote: 1908 [c.]

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-neglected-argument-reality-god-g-5