Term: Predicate

Quote: If a sign, $B$, only signifies characters that are elements (or the whole) of the meaning of another sign, $A$, then $B$ is said to be a predicate (or essential part) of $A$.

References: EP 2:305

Date of Quote: 1904 [c.]

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-new-elements-kaina-stoicheia-28