Term: Predicate
Quote: If a sign, B, only signifies characters that are elements (or the whole) of the meaning of another sign, A, then B is said to be a predicate (or essential part) of A.
References: EP 2:305
Date of Quote: 1904 [c.]
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-new-elements-kaina-stoiceia-28