
Term: Analogy
Quote: ...

[—] I have constantly since 1860, or 50 years, had this question prominently in mind, and if I had ever met with an argument not of one of these three kinds, I must certainly have perceived it. But I never have found any such kind of argument except Analogy, which, as I have shown, is of a nature, – a mixture of the three recognized kinds.

References: CP 7.97-98
Date of Quote: 1911-01
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-notes-my-logical-criticism-articles-christian-creed