Term: Proposition
Quote: Symbols are of three classes: terms, which call attention to things or quasi-things; propositions, which declare facts; and arguments, which profess to enlighten us as to the rational connections of facts or possible facts.
References: MS [R] 142:6
Date of Quote: 1899-1900 [c.]
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-notes-topical-geometry-5