Term: Thing

Quote: A thing is whatever that is real as denoted by a subject of a proposition in such an analysis of the proposition that all general characters are separated from the subject [and] thrown into the predicate.

References: MS [R] 800:10

Date of Quote: 1903 [c.]

URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-p-l-13