Term: Science of Review
Quote: Science of Review is that science which endeavors to form a systematized digest of the whole or some part of human knowledge, using whatever the science of discovery has brought to light and filling up its lacunae for its own purpose by investigations of its own.
References: NEM 4:191
Date of Quote: 1904