Term: Philosophy
Quote: Philosophy is that science which limits itself to finding out what it can from ordinary everyday experience, without making any special observations.
Source: Peirce, C. S. (1904). Reason's Conscience: A Practical Treatise on the Theory of Discovery; Wherein logic is conceived as Semeiotic. MS [R] 693.
References: NEM 4:191; HP 2:825
Date of Quote: 1904  