Belief

A state of belief may be very unhappy in consequence of the character of the proposition believed. But it is a state in which the stimulus of doubt is allayed, and in so far is satisfactory.

Source:

Date of Quote:
1902-03 [c.]

URL:
http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-reasons-rules-17