Term: Belief
Quote: Belief does not principally consist in any particular act of thought, but in a habit of thought and a conduct. A man does not necessarily believe what he thinks he believes. He only believes what he deliberately adopts and is ready to make a habit of conduct.
References: NEM 4:297-8
Date of Quote: 1904
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary-entry/quote-sketch-dichotomic-mathematics