Representations are of three kinds according to their truth or coincidence with their objects. These are

2. Symbols. Representations by virtue of original or acquired nature.

By a symbol is meant such a representation as is regarded as a representation in another system of representations.

Term: Symbol
Quote: Representations are of three kinds according to their truth or coincidence with their objects. These are
   2. Symbols. Representations by virtue of original or acquired nature.

References: W 1:303-304
Date of Quote: 1865
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-teleological-logic-2