Term: Symbol
Quote: Representations are of three kinds according to their truth or coincidence with their objects. These are

1. Signs. Representations by virtue of convention.
2. Symbols. Representations by virtue of original or acquired nature.
3. Copies. Representations by virtue of a sameness of predicates.

By a symbol is meant such a representation as is regarded as a representation in another system of representations.

References: W 1:303-304
Date of Quote: 1865
URL: http://www.commens.org/dictionary/entry/quote-teleological-logic-2