An imputed relation is a relation which is a fact, if it subsists, but [which] owes its being in part to an action, or virtual action, of the intelligence. Such, for example, is the relation of giving...