

Second-Intentional Relation

1901-1902 [c.] | Definitions for Baldwin's Dictionary [R] | MS [R] 1147

A second-intentional relation is one of which the concept is derived from the comparison of logical forms. Such are especially [...] identity, otherness, coexistence, impossibility.