

News item. Retrieved from
<http://www.commens.org/news/item/100-years-modern-semiotics-limits-and-perspectives-peirce%E2%80%99s-theory-signs>, 13.04.2021.

Category: Academic Meeting

Title: 100 Years of Modern Semiotics: Limits and Perspectives on Peirce's Theory of Signs

Description: Introduction:

The international conference is held in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the death of the founder of modern semiotics C. S. Peirce. The general topic of the conference is Peirce's semiotic, its sources and the impact on philosophy and science of 20th Century.

Call for papers:

We invite the submission of papers (abstract: 300-500 words, time slot would be 30 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for discussion) and panel proposals. Kindly submit the proposals before 20th August 2014. Language:English.

Organizers:

- Department of Electronic Culture and Semiotics (Charles University, Faculty of Humanities)
- Department of General Linguistics (Údaje Olomouc)
- Central European Pragmatist Forum

Contact persons:

- Mgr. Martin Švantner, Ph.D.
- Mgr. Vít Gvoždiak, Ph.D.

Date: 31/10/2014 to 01/11/2014

Deadline: 20/08/2014

Place: Prague, Czech Republic

Keywords: Semiotics, Semeiotic