

News item. Retrieved from
<http://www.commens.org/news/item/semiotics-%E2%80%93-philosophical-and-historical-perspectives>, 23.05.2022.

---

Category: Academic Meeting

Title: Semiotics – philosophical and historical perspectives

Description: Programme

1:00 PM Chiara Ambrosio, University College London:

"Whewell's Ghost: Philosophical Lessons from Peirce's History of Science"

2:00 PM Frederik Stjernfelt, Aalborg University Copenhagen:

"Co-localization as the Syntax of Multimodal Propositions: An Amazing Peircean Idea and some Implications for the Semiotics of Truth"

3:00 PM Coffee break

3.30 PM Claus Emmeche, University of Copenhagen:

"Charles Peirce and William James – Philosophical and Personal Connections"

4.30 PM Don Favareau, National University of Singapore:

"On the role of Peirce in the history of Biosemiotics (so far!)"

Place: Aalborg University Copenhagen, 3.084a, AC Meyers Vænge 15, 2450 Copenhagen SV

Link: Humanomics

Keywords: Semiotics