Title: Wittgenstein: language, practical knowledge and embodiment | Rivista Italiana di Filosofia del Linguaggio

Description: This special issue of RIFL is devoted to the re-contextualization of Wittgenstein's ideas regarding the nature of our linguistic competence and abilities at large, in the light of recent developments in the philosophy of mind, such as the raise of the enactivist program (Hutto, Myin, Noë) and the development of a usage-based theory of language acquisition (Tomasello).
